This is clearly unbelievable, I cannot imagine how the judge could grant a TRO based on this flawed complaint. If I recall the Marine Corp did apply the RSA priority to this award and the Blind Vendor and its partner Blackstone I assumed submitted a proposal. Matter of fact the Marine Corps applied the RSA previously when the contract was awarded, so to say that the BEP has not been given the priority is not true.

There was no compliant prior to submitting a proposal but now after being the apparent loser, the BEP finds it necessary to file a complaint. It seems that the State of Hawaii BEP, Blind Vendor and BCI is seeking a lifelong contract where the Marine Corps would not be allowed to compete its contracts at any time. Their complaint in my opinion is fatally flawed.

We will pass this to our attorney, so you can speak with (b) (6) to see how we could possibly play a part in this process.

Subject: Status update on Court Proceedings regarding the TRO

Good afternoon (b) (6)

Per counsel, I am authorized to disclose the following:

The US DoJ has decided not to request reconsideration of the adverse Federal District Court order issued on 11 May. The previously scheduled 12 June hearing that was to be held on the SLA's motion for a preliminary injunction was taken off calendar. We will provide further updates on the federal court litigation as they occur.

As to the SLA's R-SA arbitration complaint, the U.S. Department of Education has accepted the SLA's complaint for a future arbitration hearing. The SLA and USMC have been directed to nominate their respective panel members, but to date neither party has provided a nomination. Once the parties nominate their respective panel members the two panel members will meet to try to identify a third panel member who would serve as panel chair. If the parties are unable to agree on the panel chair, U.S. DoE will appoint one. At this point a R-SA arbitration proceeding will likely not occur until early 2019 at best.

Good morning (b) (6),

Please note that the following information is for your situational awareness.
No GAO protest has been filed.

The following information was provided by our legal counsel:

On March 21, 2018, MCBH received a request from the current contractor/incumbent who is a SLA (State Licensing Agency) for a R-SA arbitration before the US DoE, but to date the US DoE has not assigned an arbitration case number or sent its standard notification packet to the parties. MCBH expects the DoE to assign a case number at some point in the future (at least months away) for an arbitration hearing to be held. USMC will defend its award decision at any future US DoE arbitration proceeding.

On April 3, 2018, the SLA filed a motion for a preliminary injunction in Federal District Court seeking a court order that the SLA remain in place through the pendency of any R-SA arbitration proceeding. As of now the hearing on that motion is scheduled for 12 June, 2018; and as of now we have no court order prohibiting TSG to complete transition and commence contract performance on May 16, 2018. USMC is working with the local US Attorney's Office to oppose the SLA's pending motion in Federal District Court.

Subject: Status update on Court Proceedings regarding the TRO

Good afternoon (b) (6),

Per counsel, I am authorized to disclose the following:

The US DoJ has decided not to request reconsideration of the adverse Federal District Court order issued on 11 May. The previously scheduled 12 June hearing that was to be held on the SLA's motion for a preliminary injunction was taken off calendar. We will provide further updates on the federal court litigation as they occur.

As to the SLA's R-SA arbitration complaint, the U.S. Department of Education has accepted the SLA's complaint for a future arbitration hearing. The SLA and USMC have been directed to nominate their respective panel members, but to date neither party has provided a nomination. Once the parties nominate their respective panel members the two panel members will met to try to identify a third panel member who would serve as panel chair. If the parties are unable to agree on the panel chair, U.S. DoE will appoint one.

At this point a R-SA arbitration proceeding will likely not occur until early 2019 at best.

Subject: [Non-DoD Source] RE: Status update on Court Proceedings regarding the TRO

Thank you, (b) (6)

This is such unfortunate news that they get to hold the Marine Corps and our contract hostage until an arbitration is held. Could TSG as a party to this matter have a right to ask the court or DOJ to reconsider?

Is there any way I could get a copy of their compliant?

Thank you, sir,

I am contacting you let you know that a Federal judge issued a restraining order against us and in light of that our office has no choice but to issue a stop work order on your soon to begin contract for the Kaneohe bay Mess hall. The stop work order will be officially sent on Friday morning, but please consider this email as advanced warning to cease all activities on this contract and not to incur additional costs.

Realize this is not good news. Our office will be in touch with you tomorrow once all parties are back in the office and we will provide further guidance at that time.

Respectfully Sent,

(b) (6)

Good morning (b) (6),

Please note that the following information is for your situational awareness.
No GAO protest has been filed.

The following information was provided by our legal counsel:

On March 21, 2018, MCBH received a request from the current contractor/incumbent who is a SLA (State Licensing Agency) for a R-SA arbitration before the US DoE, but to date the US DoE has not assigned an arbitration case number or sent its standard notification packet to the parties. MCBH expects the DoE to assign a case number at some point in the future (at least months away) for an arbitration hearing to be held. USMC will defend its award decision at any future US DoE arbitration proceeding.

On April 3, 2018, the SLA filed a motion for a preliminary injunction in Federal District Court seeking a court order that the SLA remain in place through the pendency of any R-SA arbitration proceeding. As of now the hearing on that motion is scheduled for 12 June, 2018; and as of now we have no court order prohibiting TSG to complete transition and commence contract performance on May 16, 2018. USMC is working with the local US Attorney's Office to oppose the SLA's pending motion in Federal District Court.
